Goals & Objectives

To provide strength, promote self reliance, enhance the unity of our people and improve the opportunities for meaningful employment through self-determined activities and building employment and training capacity, now and seven generations into the future.

Objectives are:

- Administer program intervention dollars to Employment Units and Friendship Centres to fund eligible clients for employment and training programs.
- Match eligible clients with employers, promoting a growing number of motivated job qualified individuals ready to start careers.
- Build relationships with community colleges, private training institutes and businesses across the province to create training and employment opportunities for Ontario's urban Aboriginal people.
- Provide employment and training opportunities to Aboriginal clients who are not eligible through First Nation, Inuit or Métis agreements.

Employment Support
